Central American Surf Championship Seeks Best-Of Surfers Worldwide

PLAYA VENAÑO, PANAMA – January 11, 2011 – Dust off your board, squeeze that winter body back into your boardshorts and get stoked for the sixth-annual Central American Surf Championship on March 19, 2011 in Playa Venao, Panama! The tournament has subdivisions for men, women, and teenagers.

There has never been a better time to take some vacay days and head down to the warm air and pumping waves of Panama. Only a three-hour flight from Florida, this is a radical weekend getaway for all those bettys and dudes aching for some water time in paradise.

Surfers who think they have the chops to ride the waves of Montezuma's Revenge can sign up by filling out the entry form on WannaSurf.com.
